

Savannah Morning News, November 3, 2009\ Mrs. Elizabeth Gannam Jorde

GREENSBORO, NC - Elizabeth Gannam Jorde, 52, passed away Sunday, November 1, 2009 at Moses Cone Hospital following a brief illness.

The family will gather with friends at Hanes-Lineberry N. Elm Funeral Home, Tuesday, November 3, 2009 from 6-8 p.m.

Elizabeth was born in Savannah, GA and was the daughter of Marion DeFrank and Michael J. Gannam.

She graduated from St. Vincent High School, and then received her Bachelor degree from Georgia Southern and her Masters in Social Work form Mississippi State University.

Her love for traveling took her on many roads less traveled and her enjoyment in good health was experienced through her many years teaching aqua aerobics at the Asheville YMCA followed by her years at the YWCA in Greensboro.

Her survivors include her husband of 24 years Ronald M. Jorde; mother, Marion DeFrank Gannam; sister, Ann Gannam (Dan Gourde) of Washington State; brothers, Jim (Cynthia Heitger) Gannam and Joe (Melanie Marks) Gannam of Savannah, GA; sister-in-law, Sandra (Kirth) Blick of Klamath Falls, OR; niece Tricia Pelzel of Medford, OR; and nephews Trenton Glick of Medford OR, Josh, Nathan, and Joseph Gannon of Savannah, GA.

Memorials may be made to Animal Rescue & Foster Program, P.O. Box 77393, Greensboro, NC 27417.
