

list, who was Wallace's teacher, is not

Graduation Rites at Sacred Heart This Afternoon

S
I
B
A
H
X
U
D
O
H
O
Q
H
A
C
S
E
P
I
E
L
A
A
A S

Graduation exercises of Sacred Heart School will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon in Sacred Heart Church with the Rev. Robert Brennan, O. S. B., pastor, presiding.

Program for the exercises include: Processional, song ("The Reaping"), reading the list of graduates, presentation of diplomas, award of honors, sermon, song (Ave Maria); benediction, recessional.

The thirty-two members of the graduating class will attend mass at 8:30 o'clock this morning, following which Father Robert will honor the graduates at a breakfast in the school cafeteria. Mrs. J. D. Ware and a committee of eighth grade mothers are in charge of the breakfast.

Bernard Cleary will be awarded top prize at the graduation exercises for having received the highest average in the class. He also won the prize for having the highest average in religion. Second prize for scholarship will go to Mary Ann Saraf. Mr. Cleary will receive a one-year scholarship to Benedictine, and Miss Saraf a similar scholarship to St. Vincent's Academy.

Other prizes include: Beth Broderick, first prize in Jaycees essay contest on "Americanism," Eloy Doolan, second prize; Bobby Logan, Fire Prevention Week essay contest winner; Virginia Schano, poster contest winner; Mary Nugent, second prize in Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary essay contest; silver basketballs for free throw competition will be presented: Bernard Cleary, Mercedes Sullivan, Mary Ann Mikowski, Lurline Mikowski, William Douberly.

The list of the graduates follow: Robert Anthony Phillips, Francis C. Kennedy, George Perrington DeMott, John Edgar Schano, Walter Tarver, John Andrew Pierce, Bernard Travers Cleary, Stanley Mikowski, Jr., Fred Stephen Yokum, Marion Leroy Tidwell, Francis Anthony Kenney, Thomas A. Gramling, Thomas Whelan Ware, James Joseph Williams, Philip John Saraf, Catherine W. Hernandez, Patricia Frances Mickler, Patricia Ann Griffin, Frances Eleanor Hohenstein, Mary Ann Saraf, Laura Ann Grady, Elizabeth Ann Moore, Mary Ann Little, Jean Evelyn Ennis, Catherine Dolores Valenti, Mary Catherine Rocca, Mary Catharine Goins, Eleanor Antoinette Stelljes, Mary Elizabeth Broderick, Nancy Claire Morrissey, Mary Roe Nugent, Joan Marie Sumner.

The honor pupils for the year are: (All "A" cards during the year) eighth grade, Bernard Cleary; seventh grade, Eloy Doolan, Larry Horne, Caroline Long, Joan Cartwright, Jean Marie Barker; sixth grade, Ramon DeMott, Sheila Grady, Margaret Mary Cox, Claire Kearney, Virginia Schano; fifth grade, Alida Green, Mary Ellen Ebberwein; fourth grade, Clare Duohery, Eleanor Nicolas, Georgia Ann Lucken, Thomas McDonough; third grade, Anthony Walsh, Paula McKenzie, Margaret Wrigley, Mary Ann Baughn, Patricia Schano; second grade, Carl Schultz, James Sledge, Thomas Dotson, Nancy Harris, Gloria Schuman; first grade, Arthur Bostock, Lucy Duohery, Eugene Hahne, Sheila McAleer, Walter Pavlo, Edward Sheppard, Steve Walsh, Mary Anne Wrigley.

Those who received perfect attendance certificates for the year are: Eighth grade, John Schano, Patricia Mickler; seventh grade, Michael Ware, Mary Ellen Sullivan; sixth grade, Virginia Schano, Margaret McClellan, Billy Prescott, Margaret Mary Cox; fifth grade, Jack Allen, Tommy Garity, Mary Ellen Ebberwein, Bobby Dotson; fourth grade, Michael Best, Eleanor Nicholas, Patty Gavin; third grade, Jane Von Waldner, Harriet Thompson; first grade, Emily Mikowski, Walter Pavlo; kindergarten, Celeste Thompson.

GRADUATION FRIDAY AT SACRED HEART

DIPLOMAS AND AWARDS WILL BE PRESENTED AT EXERCISES

Graduation exercises of Sacred Heart School will take place on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Sacred Heart Church. The Rt. Rev. Monsignor T. James McNamara, diocesan superintendent of schools, will preside and diplomas will be presented by the Rev. Robert Brennan, O. S. B., pastor of Sacred Heart Church.

The list of graduates follows: Bernard Cleary, George DeMott, Thomas Gramling, Frank Kennedy, Stanley Mikowski, Robert Phillips, John Pierce, John Schano, Walter Tarver, Thomas Ware, James Williams, Fred Yokum, Roy Tidwell, Philip Saraf, Beth Broderick, Jean Ennis, Catherine Hernandez, Catherine Goins, Laura Ann Grady, Patricia Griffin, Frances Hohenstein, Mary Ann Little, Patricia Mickler, Elizabeth Moore, Nancy Morrissey, Mary Nugent, Mary Catherine Rocca, Mary Ann Saraf, Eleanor Stelljes, Joan Sumner, Catherine Valenti.

Honor graduates are Bernard Cleary and Mary Ann Saraf. The award for highest average in religion will go to Bernard Cleary, who will also receive a one-year scholarship to Benedictine Military School. A one-year scholarship to St. Vincent's will be awarded to Mary Ann Saraf.

A dinner-dance will be given the graduates this evening by the Sacred Heart P.-T. A. The dance is a formal and the graduates of the Blessed Sacrament and Cathedral schools will be guests.

On Friday morning the entire school will assist at mass. The graduates will receive holy communion at the mass. A graduate breakfast will be served at the school, given by the pastor. Father Robert and Father Timothy will preside.

The graduates will wear red caps and gowns for the graduation exercises. Little Edward Rutledge, Dennis Rooks, Eunice Russel and Stephanie Bowers of the kindergarten will also wear red caps and gowns and carry the diplomas of the graduates. The altars will be decorated with red gladioli furnished by the P.-T. A. The seventh grade, in formal dress, will accompany the graduates to the exercises. Prizes will be presented by the graduates to the graduates.

Sacred Heart graduates are as follows:

Eighth grade, Eleanor Nicol, Caroline Long, Marie Barker, John Schano, Margaret Prescott, Margaret Prescott, Alida Green, Eberwein; fourth grade, Eleanore Nicol, Lucken and Thomas; third grade, Anthony McKenzie, Margaret Ann Baughn, Patricia and grade, Carl Sledge, Thomas Dotsoris, Gloria Schuman; first grade, Lucy I gene Hahne, Sheila M. Pavlo, Edward Sheppard, Mary Ann Wrigley.